

Participant Guidelines

A Women of Valor participant is one who commits herself to journey alongside other women in a 36-week discipleship small group study. It is submission to the process of intentional growth and spiritual transformation by pursuing a daily relationship with God through Bible study, prayer, fellowship, and service to others.

Participant Guidelines

- Daily commitment to develop ongoing relationship with God – Bible reading, journaling and prayer time
- Scripture memorization
- Follow a prescribed Bible reading plan
- Weekly homework lessons
- Faithful and consistent church attendance
- Attend corporate prayer meeting monthly (i.e. Wednesday Prayer Service)
- Attend weekly WOV meeting
- Connect weekly with your group members and prayer partner
- Accountability to WOV Leaders
- Exercise confidentiality of group members
- Be a student of the Word, a servant leader, and a prayer warrior
- Attend required end of season WOV Commissioning Ceremony
- Serve the church or community through planned service projects or ministries (i.e. Chapelhill Ministries, Pantry, CarePlace, PRC, etc.)

What to expect during the season:

At weekly gatherings, the WOV Leader will provide materials and handouts. Most weekly lessons will include a large group activity, small group activity, homework, and reminders for memory verses and Bible reading. The mentor will guide the discussion during the small group activities. The goal for the small group discussion time is to gain an understanding of God's word, prayer, and application strategies of the curriculum.
